The aim of this workshop is to enhance therapists' competency in working with clients in the initial phase of sandplay therapy. We will focus on the opening journey of the sandplay process. Other than basic concepts, Dr. Leung will teach on themes and considerations in understanding sandplay.

HKSTA Executive Committee Members will present cases to demonstrate the initial phase in sandplay therapy. We will use many cases to illustrate the components in the initial phase in sandplay therapy. Small group work will allow participants to engage in the formulation process and to practice how to open ourselves to clients' sand work.

Trainer: Amy Leung Wai Yin, Ph.D., Registered Clinical Psychologist, Certified Sandplay Therapist & Teaching Member, International Society for Sandplay Therapy (ISST). Dr. Leung completed her professional training in the United States and received her Ph.D. degree in clinical psychology. Her journey in sandplay therapy began in 1992 and she has continued to pursue her training in both Jungian psychology and sandplay therapy since then. She works as a clinical psychologist in the Progression Psychological Practice and regularly teaches sandplay therapy and the use of dreams in clinical work. She is the current Chairperson of the Hong Kong Sandplay Therapy Association (HKSTA).
