Introduction to Sandplay Therapy

Sandplay therapy, founded by Dora Kalff, is one of the Jungian therapies which is used by many therapists worldwide. In this introductory course, the participants would be able to acquire the basic concepts of sandplay therapy. Experiential learning of sandplay therapy would be provided. In addition, the application and clinical use of sandplay therapy in different age groups, including children, adolescents and adults, would be taught with case illustrations.

Objectives:

- To introduce the basic concepts of sandplay therapy and facilitate the participants to experience sandplay
- To develop the participants' sense of using sandplay therapy for different age groups, including children, adolescents and adults with case illustrations.
